This Friday, the Graham School of Continuing Liberal and Professional Studies will be commemorating the University’s dedication to lifelong learning since its founding in 1890. While recognizing that the Graham School’s roots go back to the establishment of University Extension 125 years ago, this event will also be forward-looking in focus, imagining the role of lifelong learning in the evolution of the 21st century university. RSVP.

Upcoming Anniversary Events
A complete listing of 125th anniversary events can be found on our calendar.

Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality
Hanna Holborn Gray Discusses the Reissue of More than Lore: Reminiscences of Marion Talbot

Thursday, November 5, 2015
4:30 – 6:00 p.m.
Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality
5733 South University Avenue, Room 105

In celebration of the 125th anniversary of the University in 2015 and the 20th anniversary of the Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality in 2016, the CSGS, Office of the President, and University of Chicago Press host Hanna Holborn Gray, president emerita of the University and Harry Pratt Judson Distinguished Service Professor Emerita in History, to discuss the reissue of More than Lore: Reminiscences of Marion Talbot, originally published in 1936, for which Gray has written a new foreword. Talbot was the dean of women at the University from 1895 to 1925 and co-founder of what would become the American Association of University Women. More than Lore is a unique firsthand account of the early days of the University and a fascinating look at life as an early 20th-century college woman, when simply to be a woman was to be a pioneer and the foundations of the modern undergraduate experience were being established. Learn more.

Graham School
125 Years of Lifelong Learning

Friday, November 6, 2015
4:30 pm Cocktails and hor d’oeuvres
5:00 pm: Opening Remarks
University of Chicago Gleacher Center
450 North Cityfront Plaza Drive (off campus)

The Graham School of Continuing Liberal and Professional Studies will host special events to celebrate UChicago’s dedication to lifelong learning since our founding in 1890. While recognizing that our roots go back to the establishment of University Extension 125 years ago, these events will also be forward-looking in focus, imagining the role of lifelong learning in the evolution of the 21st century university. Special attention will be paid to extending the University’s reach, bridging the educational experience for broader audiences, and continuing to support the tradition of rigorous academic inquiry. RSVP.

UChicago Arts
Greetings from the Midway: A Postcard History of the University of Chicago

Tuesday, November 10, 2015
6:00 p.m.
Reva and David Logan Center for the Arts
915 East 60th Street

Featuring over two hundred postcards in a variety of formats from the 1890s to now, Greetings from the Midway: A Postcard History of the University of Chicago traces the past 125 years of campus architecture, programming, and culture. Neil Harris, Preston and Sterling Morton Professor Emeritus in History and Art History, will deliver a lecture entitled “Visualizing, Recalling, and Marketing the University of Chicago: The Early Years” at the opening reception, followed by an exhibition tour. Learn more.

Division of the Social Sciences
125 Years of Big Ideas in the Social Sciences

Thursday, November 12, 2015
5:00 – 8:00 p.m.
Program: Social Science Research Building (SSRB), Room 122. Exhibit and Reception: SSRB Lobby and Tea Room (201)

An evening of programming will explore the formation of the Chicago Schools in the social sciences, critical moments that have shaped the division, and what current directions fields are taking to influence the future of the social sciences. The program will culminate in the opening reception for an exhibit further exploring the critical moments, people, and ideas that have shaped 125 years of social sciences at UChicago. Learn more.

UChicago Arts
A Backward Glance: 125 Years of Student Arts

Thursday, November 12, 2015
Reception: 7:00 p.m. I Show: 8:00 p.m.
Reva and David Logan Center for the Arts
915 East 60th Street

In the spirit of commemorating the student-driven arts community on campus, the Reva and David Logan Center for the Arts will be hosting an exhibition of old archives and memorabilia from defining arts events and student organizations across the university's history. October 29, 2015 - early January 2016, with an opening night highlighting students themselves on Thursday, November 12, 2015. Learn more.

Photo courtesy of University of Chicago Special Collections.

Affiliated Laboratories
Powerful Partners in Transformative Science

Friday, November 13, 2015
7:30 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.
William Eckhardt Research Center Auditorium
5640 South Ellis Avenue

The University of Chicago helps lead the country in scientific and technological innovation in part through its management of two US Department of Energy laboratories, Argonne National Laboratory and Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory, and its affiliation with the world-renowned Marine Biological Laboratory. In honor of the University’s 125th anniversary, the University and Affiliated Laboratories will host a program featuring panel discussions relating to the history and future of these collaborations, including current scientific partnerships and discoveries on the horizon. RSVP. The entire program will also be webcast live here.

Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists/Chicago Harris
Can We Live in a Peaceful Nuclear World?

Monday, November 16, 2015
Noon – 4:00 p.m.
William Eckhardt Research Center Auditorium
5640 South Ellis Avenue

The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists and its partners are delighted to present the Clock Symposium. The symposium is open to the public and designed to bring together the world’s leading science and security experts to discuss the pressing issues of our time with a special focus on nuclear security and disarmament, climate change, changing energy landscape, and emerging technologies. Recent events such as the Iran nuclear deal and December’s international climate negotiations in Paris will frame this year’s discussions. Register.

Recent 125th Anniversary Highlights

Collecting for Chicago

Egyptologist Emily Teeter discussed the history of the Oriental Institute and shared some colorful stories of how Oriental Institute founder James H. Breasted brought Egypt to Chicago.
Dean Boyer Book Signing

Last week, College Dean John W. Boyer signed copies of his new anniversary book The University of Chicago: A History.

Homecoming Weekend

Students, faculty, and alumni showed their maroon pride on and off the field.

Divinity @ 125/150

The University of Chicago Divinity School celebrated its 150th anniversary with a lineup of speakers that included Larry Greenfield, Martin Marty, Daniel Meyer, Wendy Doniger, and Richard A. Rosengarten.

125.uchicago.edu | #uchicago125