

Katie Sonnenburg, MS, RN, CPNP

Katie Sonnenburg is a board certified (PNCB) Pediatric Nurse Practitioner. She works in collaboration with Ranjana Gokhale, MD, an expert in pediatric inflammatory bowel disease (IBD), as well as the entire Pediatric Gastroenterology section. Additionally, she works in partnership with two adult IBD experts, Dr. Russell Cohen and Dr. Sushila Dalal, in order to help adolescent and young adult patients with IBD transition to adult providers.

Katie is a graduate of Purdue University in West Lafayette, IN where she obtained both her bachelor's in nursing and master's in nursing. She has worked in pediatric gastroenterology for several years, with a special interest in patients with inflammatory bowel disease. Most specifically, she is interested in promoting self-management to patients diagnosed with IBD to help patients learn how to best care for their disease.

She is a member of the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America and the Association of Pediatric Gastroenterology and Nutrition Nurses.
