Beyond Evergrande, Part 2: Chinese Real Estate, Finance, and Urban Development at a Crossroads 恆大危機

Following the first episode on the Evergrande issue, we have invited another panel of experts to discuss the history and social dynamics that have shaped China's real estate market. The consequences of the Evergrande crisis could cause immediate shocks to certain sectors and more subtle effects on China's growth model.

What does bursting the Chinese real estate bubble mean to the construction industry, the finance field, raw material suppliers, the personal net worth and housing prospects of millions of Chinese citizens?

Tune in to listen to what our experts have to say and understand how this issue could potentially affect people in and outside of China.
