THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Building public trust for the safety and effectiveness of COVID-19 vaccines has been a global challenge during the pandemic. What are the reasons behind the delay in acceptance or refusal of vaccines despite the availability of vaccine services? How do language, cultural norms, and public trust affect people's confidence in Asia and the West? Please join us to hear our panel of UChicago and other experts discuss what we can do to overcome vaccine hesitancy in Hong Kong, Asia, and the world.
