Register HK Event: Sino-European Luxury Trade and the Making of the Early Modern World (Oct 6, 8:30pm HKT)

In the 16th to 18th centuries, luxury trade between China, Europe, and Latin America boomed, driven above all by the exchange of silver from Spanish-ruled Peru and Mexico for Chinese silk, porcelain, and later tea, plus Southeast Asian pepper and spices. How did the East-West trade remake the world between 1500 and 1800? What were the political and cultural implications of these commercial transformations? Our panel of experts will bring you an in-depth look at the history of luxury and talk about the luxury trade across the globe on Oct 6, 8:30pm HKT.
