

Human Trafficking

Informational Open House and Discussion

Human trafficking is a growing crime problem, with implications for the rights of women and children and human rights in general. Stop by throughout the afternoon for "Human Trafficking 101" presentations and information about this critical issue. Experts who deal with this problem from various perspectives will be available to provide resource materials and answer questions.

WHEN

Wednesday,
November 6, 2013
Noon-4PM

WHERE

The University of Chicago
School of Social Service
Administration (SSA)
Lobby & Classroom E-1
969 East 60th Street
Chicago, IL 60637

PARTICIPATING ORGANIZATIONS

FBI/Chicago Police Department-Violent Crimes
Against Children Task Force (VCAC)
Cook County Human Trafficking Task Force
Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation (CAASE)
PROMISE/Salvation Army
STOP-IT/Salvation Army
US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE)
Teen Living Programs
Young Center for Immigrant Children's Rights
University of Chicago Police Department

PANEL DISCUSSION

Overview of Human Trafficking in Chicago

Moderated by Robin Robinson
Fox 32 News Anchor
Noon-1PM

PRESENTATION

Child Prostitution and Sex Trafficking

Led by members of the FBI CPD Violent
Crimes Against Children Task Force
2-3:30PM

Space is limited. Please visit uchicago.edu/community/uchicago_engages for more information and to register to attend.

Street parking is available on campus, and there are two parking lots near the SSA building: the Harris Lot at South Woodlawn Avenue between 60th and 61st streets, and the Kimbark Lot, across the street from the Harris Lot, accessible from South Woodlawn Avenue.

CO-SPONSORED BY:

FBI Chicago Citizens Academy Alumni Association
The University of Chicago Office of Civic Engagement
The University of Chicago School of Social Service Administration
Student Government Association

