Social Impact Leadership Series: Flipping the Volunteerism Switch (Jun 13)

NGOs of all sizes often look to volunteers and board members to perform vital functions. In this free event hosted by The Hong Kong Jockey Club Programme on Social Innovation, you will learn from University of Chicago Booth School of Business Professor George Wu what the research says about volunteer engagement and how to apply these findings to your organization.

The Grand Finale for Study Abroad Program Spring 2018

Congratulations to the 24 study abroad students for completing the 9-week program on "Hong Kong: Colonizations" in Spring 2018. A Pun Choi Closing Party was held on May 25 with HKU colleague and ambassadors, as well as the two language teachers joining us. We all enjoyed the singing performance of "Number Song" by the Cantonese group and the Duet Poem Reading by the Mandarin group. Big thanks to Professor Sean Brotherton, Professor Angie Heo, Professor Alan Yu and Graduate Assistant Do Dom Kim for bringing them all the great learning experience and adventures in Hong Kong!
