

Tao Li

Chair, Mental Health Centre
Director, Brain Research Center
West China Hospital
Sichuan University

Professor Tao LI is the chair of Mental Health Centre and the director of Brain Research Center in West China Hospital, Sichuan University, China. Her research is mainly focused on identifying the causes and biomarkers of psychiatric disorders, and to develop clinically rational means to optimize the treatment in mental disorders in order to ensure maximum efficacy with minimal adverse effects. As the chair of one of the leading mental health centers in China, she has also been working on the development of mental health services in China. She published more than 200 peer-reviewed scientific publications. She is currently the Vice President of Chinese Society of Psychiatry.