Autumn 2014: Week 4

October 20, 2014

Resident Spotlight: Pietro Reggiani

I am an exchange student at UChicago from Bocconi University in Milan where I am in my third year of a Bachelor's degree in Economics. My hometown is Bologna, the town that hosts one of the oldest universities in the world (founded 1088), although it is probably better known around the world due to "Bolognese" sauce (you should definitely try the original)!

There are many activities I enjoy doing at International House, especially meeting people and laughing together. I love that I meet interesting and diverse people as I am cooking my meals or while hanging out in the Dining Room. I arrived at I-house alone but now I feel like I'm part of a big family. People are the biggest asset this place has, I don't know how many other houses on campus let you get in contact with so many diverse and interesting folks

I feel privileged to be at UChicago and love being at I-House (especially for the free ice-cream on Sundays).

A Halloween-themed poster for a costume party. The background is orange. At the top, the words "HALLOWEEN COSTUME PARTY" are written in a large, black, distressed font. Below the title, the date "Saturday, November 1" is written in a white, cursive font. Underneath the date, the time "9:30 PM ~ 12:30 AM" is written in a white, serif font. The location "International House, Assembly Hall" is written in a smaller white font. Below the location, the ticket price "Tickets $3" is written, followed by "(Purchase tickets in advance at Sunday Social Hours and Mondays)". At the bottom, there are three lines of text: "Prizes for the best costumes", "Food and drinks will be served", and "Music by DJ Max". The poster is decorated with black silhouettes of bats flying around the text and two jack-o'-lanterns at the bottom corners.
