When you're in the middle of a recipe and realize you don't have a fine-mesh sieve (or any other cooking-related tool), this independent store is well as local artists' artwork and comics. First Aid carries back issues; pop paraphernalia such as t-shirts, masks, action figures, and more.

From comic veterans to newcomers, all are welcome at Hyde Park's very own comic shop. Owner James Nurss and his staff take their work seriously – even wearing lab coats. The store has two levels and stocks Marvel, DC, independent, and graphic novel comics – as well as ethnic import and specialty items, artisanal breads, organic foods, gluten-free options, imported cheeses, and more. Their goal is to offer a unique selection of comic books and graphic novels – from the obscure to the obscure.
