THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

offers many transportation and parking options for students, faculty, staff, University of Chicago Medicine staff, and visitors who come to campus. These offerings include the free UGo shuttles that travel on a variety of daytime and nighttime routes throughout the greater campus area; more than 20 parking lots, including a large parking garage on Campus North; and several Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) bus routes that travel on and near campus. Many of these local CTA bus routes are free or discounted for University members as part of an agreement with the CTA. This guide provides a comprehensive overview of the University's transportation, parking, and general travel information at the University of Chicago. For the latest news, please visit safety-security.uchicago.edu/transportation.

What's New

CIE SHUTTLE ROUTE CHANGE

New stops have been added to the CIE Shuttle route to include Regenstein Library, Ellis Garage, and the intersection of 53rd Street and Kimbark Avenue. The shuttle now operates from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Friday. For more information about this route, see page 5.

PAY BY PHONE PARKING

The University of Chicago is piloting a Pay By Phone parking program that allows drivers to pay for parking by cell phone, an app, or by computer. This feature is available at six parking lots around campus. For more information visit safety-security.uchicago.edu/transportation.

PARKING RATE INCREASE

New parking rates for visitors and permit holders go into effect October 1, 2015. For current rates, please visit safety-security.uchicago.edu/transportation.

APOSTOLIC, APOSTOLIC/DREXEL SHUTTLES ANNOUNCEMENT

Due to safety concerns, the Apostolic and Apostolic/Drexel Shuttles will no longer stop in front of the parking garage at 6054 South Drexel Avenue. Both shuttles will continue to stop at the front entrance of the 6054 South Drexel building.

- Departs from 57th Street and University Avenue (picks up on University Avenue) on the hour from 6:00 p.m. to midnight and travels to State Street just south of Roosevelt Road near the CTA Roosevelt Station.

Transportation for Injured or Disabled Students

An injured student who needs transportation should contact Transportation & Parking Services at 773.795.6108 or bus@uchicago.edu between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday (except holidays). Service should be requested at least 24 hours in advance of when service is needed. In the interim, students should arrange other transportation options. Pickup and drop off times may vary depending on service demands. Injured student transportation will be provided for injured students but not for a third party.

Injured student transportation will be provided to and from:

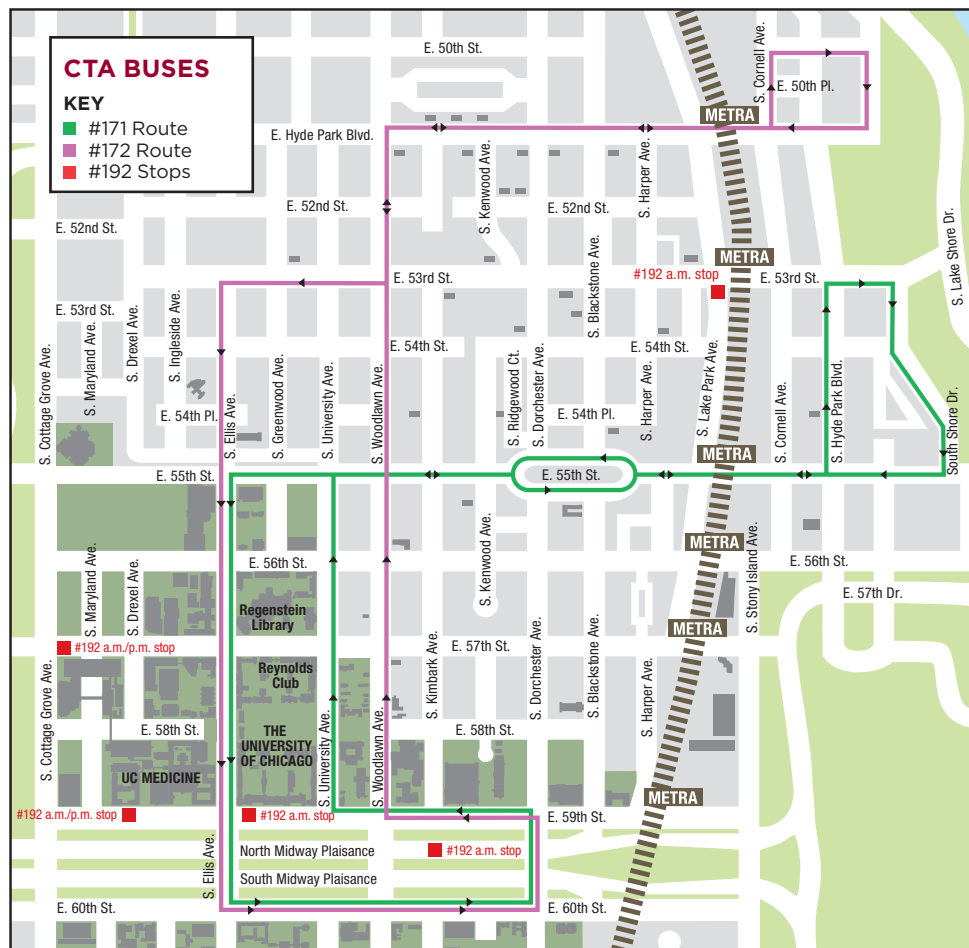

- Perimeter of the Main Quadrangle Pedestrian Zone (MQPZ)
- Campus libraries
- University of Chicago Medicine for medical treatments
- Campus dining locations

The University also provides Dial-A-Ride, a complimentary curb-to-curb transportation service for students with long-term limited mobility. This service provides rides to and from regularly scheduled classes and to and from medical appointments at the University of Chicago Medicine complex. Students requesting this service must first register with Student Disabilities Services by contacting 773.702.6000 or disabilities@uchicago.edu. Service must then be arranged with Transportation & Parking Services at least three business days prior to an individual's transport needs. To arrange for this service, contact 773.795.6108 or safety-security.uchicago.edu/transportation.

Additionally, all campus bus and shuttle transportation is ADA accessible.

CTA (Chicago Transit Authority) Buses

University students, faculty, and staff, and University of Chicago Medicine staff, ride CTA routes 171 and 172 free upon displaying a valid UChicago ID, University of Chicago Medicine ID, University of Chicago Laboratory Schools ID, or University of Chicago Charter Schools ID. CAR SHARING

The University of Chicago has partnered with Enterprise CarShare and Zipcar to offer car sharing options. There are several vehicles on campus and around the Hyde Park area. For the most up-to-date information about membership rates and locations, visit enterprisecarshare.com/uchicago or zipcar.com/uofc.

BIKING CHICAGO/DIVVY

Another way to get around campus and the surrounding area is by bicycle. The city has more than 170 miles of on-street protected, buffered, and shared bike lanes. All CTA buses have bike racks and bikes are allowed on CTA trains during non-peak hours. The city of Chicago offers Divvy, a bike sharing program. You can purchase a daily or annual membership, then simply check a bike out from one of hundreds of stations and return it to any other station in the city. For more information, visit divvybikes.com.

Tips for Your Trip

SHUTTLE ID GUIDELINES

When boarding any University shuttle, passengers should tap a valid UChicago or University of Chicago Medicine ID. Please visit the ID & Privileges website at ipo.uchicago.edu for a listing of valid IDs.

TRANSLOC

uchicago.transloc.com

All UGo shuttles and CTA routes that service campus are equipped with GPS tracking. Shuttle movements and arrivals can be tracked online, on a mobile device, or on one of the monitors located in various buildings across campus. TransLoc also displays any announcements and alerts that may affect the shuttles' movements. Shuttle tracking can also be done on the UChicago mobile app which you can download from the iTunes and Google Play stores.

RTA TRIP PLANNER

tripsweb.rtachicago.com

RTA Trip Planner is a resource to help plan trips around the greater Chicago area. The site is powered by the Regional Transit Authority (RTA) and includes all modal options: CTA, Metra, and Pace, as well as information for walkers, bikers, and drivers.

PLAN FOR WEATHER AND SPECIAL EVENTS

Before heading out the door, plan ahead and prepare for your trip around campus or the greater Hyde Park area. Plan for weather, special events, or peak travel times. In the event of a delay or reroute, alerts are posted on the Transportation & Parking Services website for University shuttles and the TransLoc website and monitors. Reroute information and temporary relocations of bus stops for the all CTA routes can be found by visiting transitchicago.com.

LOST AND FOUND

The University and its shuttle service provider assume no responsibility for any items lost while riding a UGo shuttle. Found items on UGo shuttles are turned into the Transportation & Parking Office. If you believe you left an item on a UGo shuttle, email bus@uchicago.edu and provide a description of the item. If items are not claimed by the last day of each academic quarter, they will be discarded or donated as appropriate. For items left on CTA buses, contact the CTA at 888.YOUR.CTA (888.968.7282) or transitchicago.com.

UChicago Parking

PARKING LOTS AND GARAGES

Transportation & Parking Services manages various surface parking lots and the Ellis Garage for on-campus parking. For daily and monthly rates at University-managed lots, visit safety-security.uchicago.edu/services/campus_parking/.

TRANSPORTATION & PARKING OFFICE

The Transportation & Parking Office is located on the south side, ground level of the Ellis Garage at 5525 South Ellis Avenue, Room 171. Office hours are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday. Visit the office for any questions about transportation or parking on or around the University of Chicago campus. Transportation & Parking Services staff can also be contacted by email at bus@uchicago.edu or parking@uchicago.edu.

ONLINE PARKING SERVICES

Transportation & Parking Services offers an online portal to help manage your parking account. Using your CNet ID, you can renew your permit, update vehicle information, and pay citations. Visit universityofchicago.t2hosted.com to manage your parking account. If you need assistance with the site, please contact Transportation & Parking Services at parking@uchicago.edu.

PAY BY PHONE PARKING

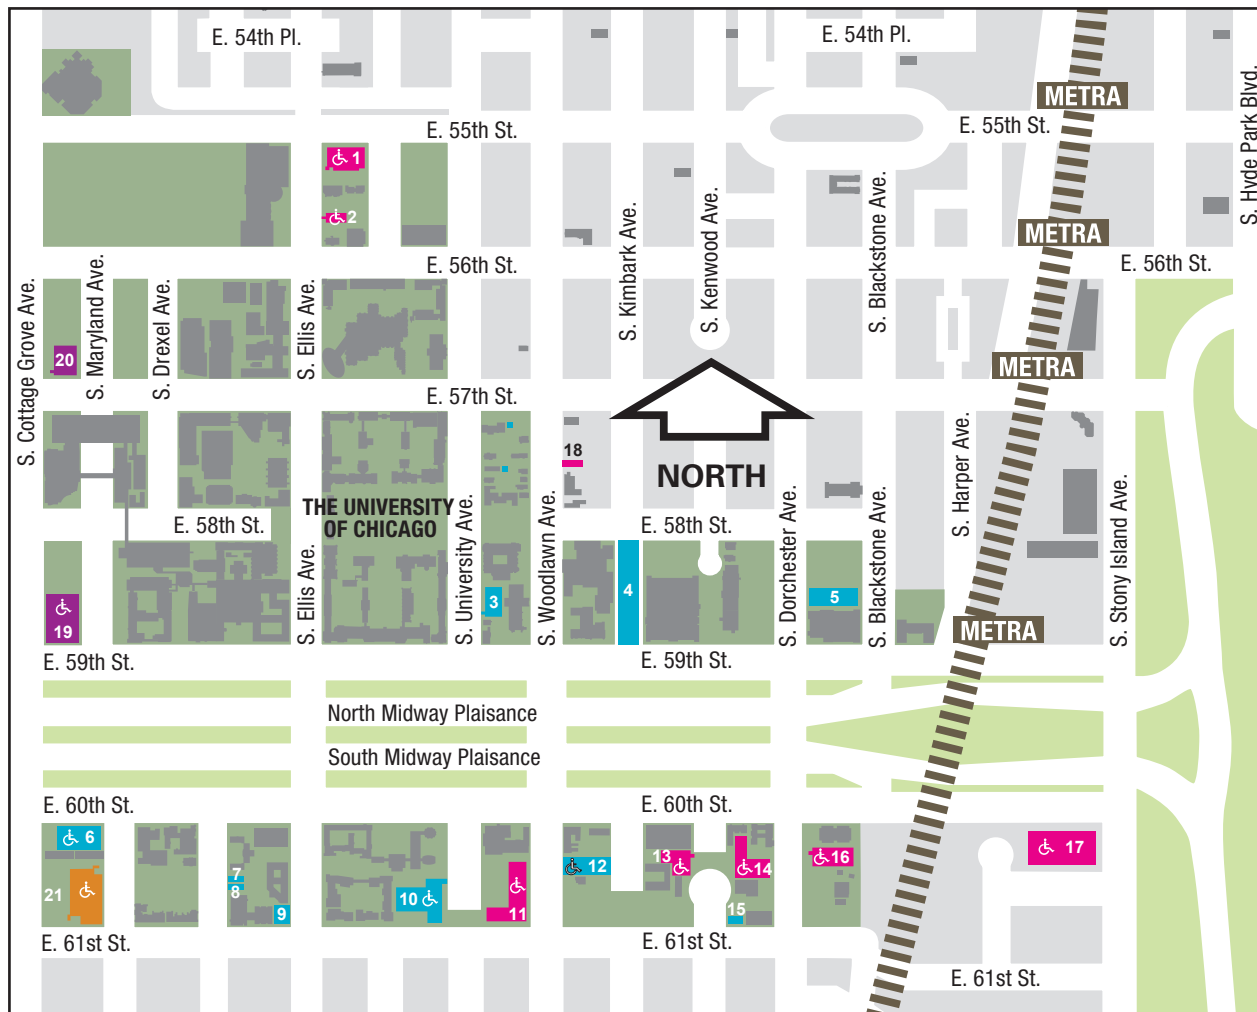

Pay By Phone Parking allows users to pay for parking using a cell phone, an app, or a computer. Parking fees for six parking lots on campus can be paid by credit card using one of these methods. For more information about this program, visit safety-security.uchicago.edu/transportation.

ALTERNATIVE TRANSPORTATION PROGRAMS

In support of campus sustainability efforts and to reduce the number of single occupancy vehicles on campus, the University offers two comprehensive alternative programs. Eligible University students, faculty, and staff may enroll in the Carpool Program and enjoy discounted parking privileges.

Enrollment in the qualifying commuter benefits program allows participants to enroll in the Occasional Parking Program and receive a limited quantity of parking passes for access to the Ellis Garage. Participants must qualify annually for both programs. For the most current information about these programs, visit safety-security.uchicago.edu/services/campus_parking/.

Additionally, benefits-eligible University staff and faculty can pay for qualifying transportation programs through the University's Commuter Benefits administrator (Conexis). For more information about this program, visit hrservices.uchicago.edu/benefits/retirefinancial/transportation.shtml.

NightRide

The NightRide shuttles are free to all University students, faculty, staff, and University of Chicago Medicine staff. To ride the shuttles, all passengers should tap a valid UChicago or University of Chicago Medicine ID when boarding. Please visit the ID & Privileges website at ipo.uchicago.edu for a listing of valid IDs.

HOURS

NightRide operates seven nights a week with a reduced service for holidays and summer quarter. Sunday through Wednesday the shuttles operate from 5 p.m. to 4 a.m. Thursday through Saturday the shuttles run from 5 p.m. to 6 a.m. The shuttles run approximately every 20-30 minutes, on the hour and half hour.

STOPS

For your safety and the safety of all passengers, flag stops can only occur at intersections. To flag a shuttle between designated stops, customers should safely stand at the intersection to allow the shuttle to safely pull over. Remember, NightRide operates when it is dark outside, so it is important to be visible to the driver and indicate to him or her that you would like to board. To indicate a stop while on the shuttle, pull the cord or ask the driver. The driver will then stop at the next intersection.
