PARKING

PARKING RATE INCREASE
New parking rates for visitors and permit holders go into effect October 1, 2018. For current rates, please visit safety-security.uchicago.edu/services/parking.

MOBILE PAYMENT PARKING
This academic year, the University will continue to expand its mobile payment system for visitor parking to additional areas of campus. The mobile payment system, known as Passport, allows visitors to pay for parking with their smartphone, through a website, or by calling a phone number. For more information, including a list of parking lots and streets where this service is offered, visit safety-security.uchicago.edu/services/parking.

LAW LOT RENNOVATION
The renovation of the Law School parking lot is currently underway. The project is scheduled to be completed September, 2018. As part of the renovation, the lot will feature a Zipcar location, mobile payment parking visitor spaces, and increased permit spaces.

TRANSPORTATION

CTA U-PASS
Students in the College are now issued the CTA’s Ventra U-Pass and are required to use it to board all CTA buses and trains.

DAYTIME SHUTTLE ROUTE CHANGES

Polsky Express Route Update
Beginning Autumn Quarter 2018, the Polsky Express shuttle will no longer service the Shoreland building. The route will run express to Booth School via Lake Park Avenue. For more details and to view the Daytime shuttle map, visit safety-security/UGO_Daytime_Shuttles.

NIGHTRIDE SHUTTLE ROUTE CHANGES
A few changes have been made to the NightRide shuttle routes. For more details and to view the NightRide map, visit safety-security.uchicago.edu/services/ugo_nightride_shuttles.

Regent’s Express Route
Due to the success of the Regent’s Express pilot, this route will continue through the 2018-2019 academic year.

South Loop Shuttle
In our continued effort to improve service, Transportation & Parking Services has added several stops to the South Loop shuttle route. The new stop locations are Stony Island & 57th and International House, located at 1414 E. 59th Street.

TRANSPORTATION & PARKING OFFICE
The Transportation & Parking Office is located on the south side, ground level of the Ellis Garage at 5525 South Ellis Avenue, Room 171. Office hours are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday. Visit the office for any questions about transportation or parking on or around the University of Chicago campus, or email bus@uchicago.edu or parking@uchicago.edu.

ONLINE PARKING SERVICES
universityofchicago.t2hosted.com
Transportation & Parking Services offers an online portal to help manage your parking account. With your CNet ID, you can renew your permit, update vehicle information, and pay citations. For assistance with the site, contact Transportation & Parking Services at parking@uchicago.edu.

CITATIONS
safety-security.uchicago.edu/services/parking
Ticketed parkers have 60 days to pay their fine or a $20 late fee will be imposed. Citations cannot be contested after 14 days from the issuing date. Payments can be made online or in the Transportation & Parking Office. Citations that go to collections must be paid directly to the collection agency. Visit the parking website for current fee and collection information.

PRE-TAX COMMUTER BENEFIT
wageworks.com or 877.924.3967
Benefits-eligible employees can pay for their monthly parking expenses using payroll deduction if parking on campus. Benefits-eligible employees may also pay for their commuting expenses through pre-tax benefits covered by the University.

MOBILE PAYMENT PARKING
safety-security.uchicago.edu/transportation
Visitors coming to campus have the option to use a mobile payment application to pay for their parking. Passport allows drivers to pay for parking using their smartphones or by calling a phone number relevant to the parking location. Passport can be used for visitor parking in the following locations: Chapin, Young, Dorchester, 1155/Harris, McGiffert, Wells, Law and along Greenwood Avenue.

ALTERNATIVE TRANSPORTATION PROGRAM safety-security.uchicago.edu/services/alternative_options
In support of campus sustainability efforts and to reduce the number of single occupancy vehicles on campus, the University offers an alternative transportation program. Enrollment in the qualifying commuter benefits program allows UChicago members to enroll in the Occasional Parking Program and receive a limited quantity of parking passes for access to Ellis Garage. Participants must qualify annually for this program.

TRANSPORTATION FOR INJURED OR DISABLED STUDENTS

INJURED STUDENT TRANSPORTATION

transportation.uchicago.edu

An injured student who needs transportation should go to transportation.uchicago.edu to fill out the Injured Student & Dial-A-Ride Transportation Request Form. If you have any questions, please contact Transportation & Parking Services at 773.795.6108 or bus@uchicago.edu between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday (except holidays). Service should be requested at least 24 hours in advance of when service is needed. In the interim, students should arrange other transportation options. Transportation will be provided on campus for classes, meals, appointments, and other University-related activities between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m., Monday through Friday. Pick up and drop off times may vary depending on service demands. Injured student transportation will be provided for injured students but not for a third party.

DIAL-A-RIDE SERVICE

The University also provides Dial-A-Ride, a complimentary curb-to-curb transportation service for students with long-term limited mobility. This service provides rides to and from regularly scheduled classes and to and from medical appointments at the University of Chicago Medicine complex. Students requesting this service must first register with Student Disabilities Services or by contacting 773.702.6000 or disabilities@uchicago.edu. Service must then be arranged with Transportation & Parking Services at least three business days prior to an individual’s transport needs. To arrange for this service, contact 773.795.6108 or bus@uchicago.edu.

Additionally, all campus bus and shuttle transportation is ADA accessible.

University students, faculty, and staff, and University of Chicago Medicine staff, ride CTA routes 171 and 172 free upon displaying a valid University-issued ID, University of Chicago Medicine ID, or University of Chicago Laboratory or Charter School ID.

Students in the College must use their CTA Ventra U-Pass card to ride CTA buses and trains. All other riders are required to pay the appropriate CTA fare. Information about all CTA routes can be found at transitchicago.com.

TIPS FOR YOUR TRIP

TIPS FOR YOUR TRIP

SHUTTLE ID GUIDELINES
When boarding any University shuttle, passengers should tap a valid UChicago-issued ID, University of Chicago Medicine ID, or University of Chicago Laboratory or Charter School ID. Visit the ID & Privileges website at ipo.uchicago.edu for a listing of valid IDs.

TRANSIT TRACKING
safety-security.uchicago.edu/transportation
All UGo shuttles and CTA routes that service campus are equipped with GPS tracking. Shuttle movements and arrivals can be tracked online, on a mobile device, or on one of the monitors located in various buildings across campus. The University’s transit tracking program also displays any announcements and alerts that may affect the shuttles’ movements. The TransLoc app is available through iTunes and the Google Play store.

RTA TRIP PLANNER
tripsweb.rtachicago.com
RTA Trip Planner is a resource to help plan trips around the greater Chicago area. The site is powered by the Regional Transit Authority (RTA) and includes all modal options: CTA, Metra, and Pace, as well as information for walkers, bikers, and drivers.

LOST AND FOUND
The University and its shuttle service provider assume no responsibility for any items lost while riding a UGo shuttle. If you believe you left an item on a UGo shuttle, email bus@uchicago.edu. If your item has been turned in, we will make every effort to reconnect you with it. Please allow 24 hours (or the next business day) for lost and found items to be processed. Unclaimed items will be kept until the end of each month. Any unclaimed items will be taken to a donation center or discarded. For items left on CTA buses, contact the CTA at 888.YOUR.CTA (888.968.7282).

PRE-TAX COMMUTER BENEFIT
wageworks.com or 877.924.3967
Benefits-eligible employees can pay for their commuting expenses through a pre-tax parking benefit offered by the University. Transportation expenses can also be covered based on how you commute to work.
UGO TRANSPORTATION

All University of Chicago shuttles are part of the UGo shuttle program. This includes the following daytime shuttles: Midway Metra, Friend Center and Metra, Drexel, Apostolic, Apostolic/Drexel, 53rd Street Express, and Polsky Express. The NightRide shuttles – North, South, East, and Central routes – and the South Loop Shuttle, are also part of the UGo shuttle program.

The UGo shuttles travel around campus and into the neighboring communities. The shuttles are free and run year-round, except on University-observed holidays. To track any of the UGo shuttles, as well as CTA buses that operate on or near campus, use TransLoc. TransLoc can be viewed as a smartphone app or on monitors in several buildings on campus. TransLoc also provides any temporary reroute and other service-related information.

To ride the shuttles, passengers should tap a valid UChicago-issued ID, University of Chicago Medicine ID, or Laboratory Schools or Charter School ID.

SOUTH LOOP SHUTTLE

The South Loop Shuttle operates during the academic year on Friday and Saturday nights between campus and Chicago’s South Loop neighborhood. The South Loop Shuttle only stops at designated stops and does not pick up or drop off passengers at intersections. This service is free and available for University students, faculty, staff, and University of Chicago Medicine staff. To ride the shuttle, all passengers should tap a valid UChicago-issued ID or University of Chicago Medicine ID.
UGO DAYTIME SHUTTLES

HOURS
The UGo Daytime shuttles operate Monday through Friday between 5 a.m. and 9 p.m. Hours vary depending on the routes. The Daytime shuttles operate year-round, with the exception of the South Loop Shuttle which does not run during the Summer Quarter.

STOPS
The University’s express shuttles only stop at designated stops and do not pick up or drop off passengers at intersections. The other daytime shuttles will pick up and drop off passengers at intersections. To flag a shuttle, safely stand at an intersection to allow the shuttle to safely pull over. To indicate a stop while on the shuttle, pull the cord or ask the driver. The driver will then stop at the next safe intersection.

UGO NIGHTRIDE SHUTTLES

HOURS
The UGo NightRide shuttles operate seven days a week. Sunday through Wednesday the shuttles run from 5 p.m. to 4 a.m. Thursday through Saturday the shuttles run from 5 p.m. to 6 a.m. The shuttles operate approximately every 15 minutes from 5 p.m. to midnight, and approximately every 30 minutes from midnight to the end of service. The South Route operates every 30 minutes from 5 p.m. to the end of service. The Regents Express operates from 5:20 to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday.

STOPS
For your safety and the safety of all passengers, flag stops can only occur at intersections. To flag a shuttle between designated stops, customers should safely stand at the intersection to allow the shuttle to safely pull over. Remember, NightRide shuttles operate primarily when it’s dark outside, so it is important to be visible to the driver to indicate to him or her that you would like to board. To indicate a stop while on the shuttle, pull the cord or ask the driver. The driver will then stop at the next safe intersection.
