This month’s Safety Talk will provide suggestions for being more active and involved in improving the safety of our workplace.

Let’s all resolve to be more safety conscious while we conduct our daily operations.

The most important thing is to go home safe and sound at the end of the day.