Dear Mary:

Thanks for your letter of March 26th. It's good to know that you have not forgotten us. Any time you can send us the photographs we will be overjoyed. I'm sorry that it's such a problem.

Needless to say, we would be delighted if there were any paintings that we could have. As I mentioned in an earlier letter, I hope that they would be paintings on canvas because we are certainly not set up here to handle paintings on panel.

Keep your eyes open for the next Art Journal, by the way, for my article on the Kress Study Collection Program will be in it.

Yes, indeed, Inge and I are going to Europe this summer. We had really intended to go in March, and take six months, coming back in September. But, I've decided that I really should see through a complete academic year so that I can catch on to the routines. We will be leaving, therefore, around mid-June for Florence and will stay there for at least a month. We then hope to spend a while in Vienna and Southern Germany. As soon as we have our itinerary planned, we will send it to you and you do the same for us. I'm sure that we can meet somewhere and, since it seems impossible to do it in either New York or Chicago, we can have a glorious get-together abroad.

Our very best to Mr. Emerson and everyone else, and lots of love to you.

Sincerely,

Ed.
