

Call for Applications: CCT Fellows Program 2022-2023

Apply Here!

CCT Fellows are graduate students with a demonstrated commitment to teaching and interest in how people learn. Selected from across all divisions, disciplines, and schools via a competitive application process, Fellows develop programs and resources to address the needs and concerns of graduate student teachers (e.g. TAs, Interns, Lecturers) in their fields. Other responsibilities include helping to facilitate the annual Teaching@Chicago orientation, developing and facilitating the Fundamentals of Teaching Series, and leading discussions on pedagogical topics of interest at Fellows meetings. The CCT Fellows Program offers a unique opportunity to reflect on teaching with a community of peers and gain valuable experience in higher education administration, workshop facilitation, program development, and collaboration with colleagues from different disciplines and programs across campus.

New Fellows are appointed for one year and may request reappointment in subsequent years contingent upon satisfactory fulfillment of role and responsibilities. The time commitment is expected to be 5-7 hours per week. New Fellows receive an annual stipend of $4500, paid over the course of the academic year beginning in Autumn Quarter, as well as $200 for attending two days of required training during the spring and summer of 2022, for a total of $4700.

Students in any PhD program at the University of Chicago may apply, provided that they:

- Are in good academic standing
- Have at least two quarters of teaching experience at UChicago (e.g., TA, intern, or lecturer)
- Have completed or are currently enrolled in the CCT's pedagogy course, CCTE 50000 Course Design and College Teaching
- Can participate in all training sessions (tentatively scheduled for a few hours on both June 2nd and September 7th) and the Teaching@Chicago Conference (tentatively scheduled for September 21st). Please note that dates and modalities (i.e., remote vs. in-person) may be subject to change.

The CCT Fellows program actively encourages applications from members of traditionally underrepresented groups in higher education. Please feel free to email cct@uchicago.edu with any questions you may have about the program or application process. Prospective applicants are encouraged to attend the information session about the program via Zoom on Thursday, February 17th at 4-4:45pm (register here). The deadline for applications for the 2022-2023 academic year is March 28, 2022 at 9am. We aim to announce selections via email in May.
