Understanding the Costs of Medical Care

This guide is designed to help you gain a basic understanding of potential out-of-pocket costs after receiving medical care and provides an overview of the University of Chicago’s requirements, fees, and health care services, as well as common health care terminology.
Each year all registered students* are enrolled in the University Student Health Insurance Plan (U-SHIP)—unless they waive coverage by providing proof of alternate comparable coverage.

The deductible, out-of-pocket maximum, co-insurance, co-payment, and other rates will vary by insurance plan as well as by the number of family members covered under the plan. U-SHIP, for example, has a $500 per insured person deductible for in-network providers, and a $1,500 annual out-of-pocket maximum per insured person. Once a student on U-SHIP meets the $500 deductible, the plan pays 90% of in-network costs, until the student reaches the $1,500 out-of-pocket maximum. Students who enroll dependents in U-SHIP will incur additional out-of-pocket costs.

The following chart compares students’ out-of-pocket expenses for a $5,000 medical bill for individuals on U-SHIP and two other plans that meet the University’s comparable coverage requirements.

Understanding the EOB: Explanation of Benefits

An Explanation of Benefits, or EOB, is a statement sent by your health insurance company to explain what services or treatments were paid on your behalf. It’s letting you know the health care provider that filed a claim, what it was for, whether it was approved, and for how much. The most important thing to remember is that an EOB is not a bill. You should always review your EOB to make sure it’s correct.

Health Insurance: Learning the Lingo

Annual out-of-pocket maximum:
The total amount paid each year by the individual for the deductible and co-insurance. After reaching the out-of-pocket maximum, the plan pays 100 percent of the allowable charges.

Co-insurance:
The money that an individual is required to pay for services, after a deductible has been met. For example, the policy-holder pays 20 percent of the charges while the health plan pays 80 percent.

Co-payment:
An arrangement where an individual pays a specified dollar amount for covered health care services and the health plan or insurance company pays the remainder.

Deductible:
The plan deductible is the amount an individual pays during a calendar year before the health plan reimburses any medical expenses.

Explanation of Benefits:
A statement that details what the health insurance plan covers, what the plan does not cover, how much money needs to be paid, and more.

In-Network:
The facilities, providers, and suppliers your health insurer or plan has contracted with to provide health care services.

Out-of-Network:
Providers who don’t contract with an individual’s health insurance or plan.

Premium:
The amount the individual pays to the health plan each month for health insurance.

Primary Care Provider:
A physician, nurse practitioner, clinical nurse specialist, or physician assistant, as allowed under state law, who provides, coordinates, or helps an individual access a range of health care services.
